

Barbara Lanza is graduated with honors in Biological Sciences. She works as Senior Researcher of CREA and carries out his research activity in the field of Table Olives at the CREA-IT headquarters in Pescara. She is an expert of the International Olive Council in organoleptic evaluation, nutritional characteristics and standards of table olives. Currently she coordinates the Mipaaf DEAOLIVA Project and is co-author of 59 publications on ISI WoS/Scopus refereed journals (h-index 21).